The Client Connection

The Markets

...And, they're off!

Bullish sentiment helped world equity markets get off to a fast start last week. Just name a country or region - developed markets, emerging markets, the United States, Latin America, Asia, Europe, the United Kingdom - and it's likely the area's benchmark index may have been up for the week.

Are You Thinking About Starting a Business?

Small businesses in the United States employed 56.8 million people or 48 percent of the private workforce in 2013 (the latest numbers available), according to the U.S. Small Business Administration. That's pretty remarkable when you realize that 34 percent of small businesses employ fewer than 100 people.
