

The Client Connection

News and Updates from The Gensler Group

November 17, 2015

In this Issue

The Markets

Compare Cash Back Credit Cards

Should you be worried about a Thanksgiving turkey shortage?

Updated Reviews

Click on image above to read Weekly Market Commentary

Q3

Quarterly Market Review
Third Quarter 2015

The Markets

Attacks on Paris by the Islamic State were an appalling exclamation point at the end of a difficult week for stock markets.

World stock markets tumbled as investors braced for a possible rate hike by the Federal Reserve in December. Many national indices across the United States, Europe, and Asia experienced downturns of more than 2 percent. The Dow Jones Industrial Average lost 3.7 percent and the Standard & Poor's 500 Index gave back 3.6 percent. The exception was Japan's Nikkei 225, which gained 1.7 percent, largely because its weakening currency benefited Japanese exporters.

Click here to read the entire article.

COMPARE Cash Back Credit Cards

Do you want to get cash back for everything you buy? If so, get a cash back credit card. Cash back credit cards give you a percentage back in cash for all your purchases

Click here to read the Quarterly Market Review.

Visit us Online

Like us on Facebook

View our profile on LinkedIn

Referring family and friends is the best compliment you can pay us.

Some give one flat rate for everything you buy, while others give you up to 6% back for certain types of purchases like groceries. Most cards also offer introductory bonuses of at least $100 for spending a certain amount within the first few months. Many cash back credit cards even offer a 0% introductory APR for a year or longer, which can make them especially attractive. To find a card that is best for you, see our Personalized Cash Back Calculator or our list of the top cards from our partners we've reviewed below. To learn more about credit cards, see our Credit Card FAQs.

Click here to read the entire article.

Should you be worried about a Thanksgiving turkey shortage?

You may have heard earlier this year that there was going to be a turkey shortage because of an outbreak of Avian flu last spring. A widespread shortage didn't come to pass, but it's still time to get serious about shopping.

In fact, if you are looking for a Heritage turkey - one descended from the first domesticated turkeys raised by English settlers - you're likely already too late. Fortunately, there are many other bird options still available.

Let's Talk Turkey

If you're price-sensitive, you wouldn't have been looking for a Heritage turkey anyway, because prices start at $99 for the 8- to 10-pound birds. That's about enough to feed six people and leave some leftovers, by most estimates (typically 1.5 pounds per person).

Click here to read the entire article.

Join Our Mailing List

The information contained in this email message is being transmitted to and is intended for the use of only the individual(s) to whom it is addressed. If the reader of this message is not the intended recipient, you are hereby advised that dissemination, distribution, or copying of this message is strictly prohibited.

