When is a door not a door?

The answer, of course, is: When it's ajar.

Investors and analysts were trying to find the answer to a different riddle last week: When are strong retail sales not strong retail sales?

Considering Dental Insurance? It May Not Be Worth It

I always knew that dental insurance was not a good deal for people with healthy teeth and a limited need for dental care. Then I drove a snowmobile into a tree. Since then, I have had a multitude of complicated dental issues, which have caused me to incur close to $15,000 in bills for root canals, orthodontic treatment and fillings.
