

The Client Connection

The Markets

The world's stock markets took it on the chin last week.

A one-two punch was delivered with the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) meeting leading and concerns Britain will leave the European Union following.

On Wednesday, the Federal Reserve confirmed what many had suspected. There would be no June rate hike. There was unexpected news, too.

Coronado's Low Tide Ride and Stride

Coronado's own unique event organized by the Rotary Club of Coronado, the annual LOW TIDE RIDE AND STRIDE, returns

Sunday, June 26th with an 8:00am start time.

For one day only the US Navy opens up a pristine 8.2 mile stretch of beach starting at YMCA Camp Surf in Imperial Beach, and ending at the finish line on the beach past the Hotel Del Coronado. As in years past, over 50% of the event proceeds will be donated to local Wounded Veteran's causes.
