Not quite as popular as Brangelina and Kimye, 'Grexit' (short for Greek Exit) has gained traction as a nickname during the past few months. The British press appropriated a variation, Brexit, when they discovered that the Bank of England was researching the potential risks of renegotiating membership in the European Union, or possibly even leaving the group-but that's another story.

This is about Greece, and it's a Grexhausting tale. Last week, The Economist explained the state of affairs this way,

"...euro-zone finance ministers failed for the third time in four days [on June 25] to find a breakthrough in their talks over Greece's bail-out...But four days before its twice-extended bail-out expires and a €1.5 billion ($1.7 billion) payment to the [International Monetary Fund] IMF falls due, Greece and its far-left prime minister, Alexis Tsipras... still have no deal."

Have a safe and happy 4th of July weekend!

This nation will remain the land of the free only so long as it is the home of the brave.

~Elmer Davis

Identity theft, imposter scams, charity scams, Medicare scams-the ways crooks have devised to bilk you out of your money seem endless. And the amount of money they take is staggering. In 2012 (the most recent statistics available) there were 16.6 million victims of identity theft alone, who suffered over $24.7 billion in financial loss, according to the Bureau of Justice Statistics Identity Theft Survey. Consumers also reported over $223 million in losses between 2012 until May 31, 2014 from imposter scams (thieves pretending to be everything from a grandchild who needs money, to a telemarketer saying you've won a prize), according to the Federal Trade Commission, the nation's consumer protection agency.

Coronado Independence Day Celebration 2015 Schedule

Saturday, July 4th

5:00AM - Wake up & get your spot along Orange Ave for the parade. You can't set up before 5am - however, you should get there by 4:30am and wait across the street from 'your spot' if you want front row seating on the curb or grassy median! Tip, you can also take the ferry over from downtown San Diego to Coronado. The traffic is going to be heavy, so plan on walking or biking.
