

The Client Connection

The Markets

"Start your engines," was not in the Department of Labor (DOL)'s June Employment Report Summary, but it may as well have been. A positive jobs report revved investor optimism and sent U.S. stock markets sprinting higher last week.

8 Ways Warehouse Clubs Get You to Buy More

Buying in bulk isn't always a good deal.

Whether you're a loyal warehouse club shopper, or someone trying to decide if the membership fee is worth the savings, it's important to understand how Costco and Sam's Club trick you into spending your money. From the floor plan of the warehouse, to how they stock their shelves, everything is done for a reason. And that reason is to separate you from as much of your hard-earned money as possible. Here are the tricks to be aware of so you can become a savvy warehouse club shopper.
