The Markets

The market is as streaky as a slice of bacon.

U.S. stock markets have been sliding higher. They've been sliding lower.

Barron's reported the Standard & Poor's 500 Index has tumbled from gains to losses and back again for 10 weeks in a row. The Dow Jones Industrial Index has tagged along with nine weeks of flip-flops. You'd almost think they were running for office.

There are market optimists. There are market pessimists.

The American Association of Individual Investors (AAII) weekly survey of investor sentiment reported 34.6 percent of respondents were bullish. That's up from the previous week. Thirty-five percent of respondents were bearish. That's also up from last week. What's down? Neutral sentiment. More people are forming opinions about the possible direction of the market.

Many of my older-adult patients wanted to make a difference in the world but, finding no role for themselves, were treated as socially useless. Having created a new stage of life, the next step is to make it meaningful.

Between 1900 and 2000, average life expectancy increased by nearly 30 years in the United States and most other developed countries of the world, and the developing world is catching up quickly. For the first time in history, most people now being born can expect to live seven, eight, nine, or more decades. This achievement changes not only the trajectory of individual lives but also the shape of societies: Adults 60 and older are now the fastest-growing segment of our population.

Fleet Week Coronado Speed Festival 2015

The annual Fleet Week Coronado Speed Festival ("The Race at the Base") is celebrating its 18th year. Join thousands of race enthusiasts and fans in this premier motor sports event saluting our nation's military.

The Fleet Week Coronado Speed Festival is Fleet Week San Diego's marquee event. The event features fast-paced, thrilling auto racing and exhibitions for car enthusiasts of all ages at one of the most distinctive race track locations - Naval Air Station North Island, the birthplace of Naval Aviation. Nowhere else can you see a variety of cars racing on a live runway used by the U.S. Navy.
